But in fact Christ has been raised

1 Corinthians 15:20

Worship Leader: Pastor Timothy Denney Preacher: Pastor Richard Krause

Prayer: O Lord God, my heart is filled with joy and thanksgiving as I stand at the threshold of a new week. How richly you have blessed me, sinful and unworthy as I am! I am thankful with all my heart for your many mercies—for sustenance and protection, for godly friends and companions, for the opportunity to serve you another day. But especially I am thankful for the continued assurance of the forgiveness of my sins through Jesus, my Savior, and for the guidance and comfort of your Holy Spirit through your Word. Lord, graciously accept my thanksgiving, and let me be your servant today and always. Amen.

CALL TO WORSHIP

P: We worship in the name of the Father and of the Son (†) and of the Holy Spirit.

C: Amen.

P: Teach me, LORD, the way of your decrees, that I may follow it to the end.

C: Give me understanding, so that I may keep your law and obey it with all my heart.

P: Direct me in the paths of your commands, for there I find delight.

C: Turn my heart toward your statutes and not toward selfish gain.

P: Turn my eyes away from worthless things;

C: Preserve my life according to your Word. (Psalm 119:33-37)

CONFESSION OF SINS AND FORGIVENESS

P: So often we have despised God's Word and have failed to gladly hear and learn it. For this and all our sins, we bow before God and humbly ask for his forgiveness.

C: Holy and merciful Father,

I confess that I am by nature sinful

and that I have disobeyed you in my thoughts, words, and actions.

I have done what is evil and failed to do what is good;

for this I deserve your punishment both now and in eternity.

But I am truly sorry for my sins,

and trusting in my Savior, Jesus Christ, I pray:

Lord, have mercy on me, a sinner.

P: God gave his Word so "that you may believe that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of God, and that by believing you may have life in his name." (John 20:31) The Scriptures testify about Jesus, who lived a perfect life for you, died on the cross to pay for all your sins, and rose again to assure you of your salvation. Therefore, as a called servant of Christ and by his authority, I forgive you all your sins in the name of the Father and of the Son (†) and of the Holy Spirit.

C: Amen.

PRAYER

P: Heavenly Father, we are gathered here to worship you. Draw near to us in your gracious Word and assure us of your loving kindness. Curb our wandering thoughts, that with undivided attention we may hear your voice and sing your praise through Jesus Christ, our Lord.

C: Amen.

“Surely It Is God Who Saves Me” (Lambs of Christ Children, 10:30 am Sunday Service)

*Surely it is God who saves me;
I will trust in him and not be afraid.
For the Lord is my stronghold and my sure defense,
And he will be my Savior.*

Therefore you shall draw water with rejoicing
From the springs of salvation.
And on that day you shall say,
“Give thanks to the Lord and call upon his name.”

Make his deeds known among the peoples;
See that they remember that his name is exalted.
Sing the praises of the Lord,
For he has done great things and this is known in all the world.

Cry aloud, inhabitants of Zion,
Ring out your joy,
For the great one in the midst of you
Is the Holy One of Israel.

BAPTISM Colton John Howell (10:30 am Sunday Service)

OLD TESTAMENT LESSON Jeremiah 17: 5-8

This is what the LORD says:

“Cursed is the one who trusts in man,
 who draws strength from mere flesh
 and whose heart turns away from the LORD.
That person will be like a bush in the wastelands;
 they will not see prosperity when it comes.
They will dwell in the parched places of the desert,
 in a salt land where no one lives.

“But blessed is the one who trusts in the LORD,
 whose confidence is in him.
They will be like a tree planted by the water
 that sends out its roots by the stream.
It does not fear when heat comes;
 its leaves are always green.
It has no worries in a year of drought
 and never fails to bear fruit.”

GOSPEL LESSON Luke 6: 17-26

He went down with them and stood on a level place. A large crowd of his disciples was there and a great number of people from all over Judea, from Jerusalem, and from the coastal region around Tyre and Sidon, who had come to hear him and to be healed of their diseases. Those troubled by impure spirits were cured, and the people all tried to touch him, because power was coming from him and healing them all.

Looking at his disciples, he said:

“Blessed are you who are poor,
 for yours is the kingdom of God.
Blessed are you who hunger now,
 for you will be satisfied.
Blessed are you who weep now,
 for you will laugh.
Blessed are you when people hate you,
 when they exclude you and insult you
 and reject your name as evil,
 because of the Son of Man.

“Rejoice in that day and leap for joy, because great is your reward in heaven. For that is how their ancestors treated the prophets.

“But woe to you who are rich,
for you have already received your comfort.
Woe to you who are well fed now,
for you will go hungry.
Woe to you who laugh now,
for you will mourn and weep.
Woe to you when everyone speaks well of you,
for that is how their ancestors treated the false prophets.”

SERMON TEXT 1 Corinthians 15: 1-20

Now, brothers and sisters, I want to remind you of the gospel I preached to you, which you received and on which you have taken your stand. By this gospel you are saved, if you hold firmly to the word I preached to you. Otherwise, you have believed in vain.

For what I received I passed on to you as of first importance: that Christ died for our sins according to the Scriptures, that he was buried, that he was raised on the third day according to the Scriptures, and that he appeared to Cephas, and then to the Twelve. After that, he appeared to more than five hundred of the brothers and sisters at the same time, most of whom are still living, though some have fallen asleep. Then he appeared to James, then to all the apostles, and last of all he appeared to me also, as to one abnormally born.

For I am the least of the apostles and do not even deserve to be called an apostle, because I persecuted the church of God. But by the grace of God I am what I am, and his grace to me was not without effect. No, I worked harder than all of them—yet not I, but the grace of God that was with me. Whether, then, it is I or they, this is what we preach, and this is what you believed.

But if it is preached that Christ has been raised from the dead, how can some of you say that there is no resurrection of the dead? If there is no resurrection of the dead, then not even Christ has been raised. And if Christ has not been raised, our preaching is useless and so is your faith. More than that, we are then found to be false witnesses about God, for we have testified about God that he raised Christ from the dead. But he did not raise him if in fact the dead are not raised. For if the dead are not raised, then Christ has not been raised either. And if Christ has not been raised, your faith is futile; you are still in your sins. Then those also who have fallen asleep in Christ are lost. If only for this life we have hope in Christ, we are of all people most to be pitied.

But Christ has indeed been raised from the dead, the firstfruits of those who have fallen asleep.

THE APOSTLES' CREED

I believe in God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth.

I believe in Jesus Christ, his only Son, our Lord,
who was conceived by the Holy Spirit,
born of the virgin Mary,
suffered under Pontius Pilate,
was crucified, died, and was buried.

He descended into hell.

The third day he rose again from the dead.

He ascended into heaven

and is seated at the right hand of God the Father almighty.

From there he will come to judge the living and the dead.
