Isaiah 12:1

Worship Leader: Pastor Timothy Denney Preacher: Pastor Timothy Gerbing

Prayer: Dear Jesus, you walked the way of the cross as your Father's obedient servant. Open our ears and teach us by your Spirit, that we also do not rebel against our heavenly Father, but walk in obedience as disciples who willingly learn from you. Amen.

INVOCATION

P: We worship in the name of the Father and of the Son (†) and of the Holy Spirit.

C: Amen.

CONFESSION OF SINS AND FORGIVENESS

P: Let us draw near with true hearts and confess our sins to God our Father, asking him in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ to forgive us.

C: Holy and merciful Father, I confess that I am by nature sinful and that I have disobeyed you in my thoughts, words, and actions. I have done what is evil and failed to do what is good. For this I deserve your punishment both now and in eternity. But I am truly sorry for my sins, and trusting in my Savior Jesus Christ, I pray: Lord, have mercy on me, a sinner.

P: God, our heavenly Father, has been merciful to us and has given his only Son to be the atoning sacrifice for our sins. Therefore, as a called servant of Christ and by his authority, I forgive you all your sins in the name of the Father and of the Son (†) and of the Holy Spirit.

C: Amen.

PSALM 32

P: Blessed is the one whose transgressions are forgiven,

C: Whose sins are covered.

P: Blessed is the one whose sin the LORD does not count against them

C: And in whose spirit is no deceit.

P: When I kept silent my bones wasted away

C: Through my groaning all day long.

P: For day and night your hand was heavy on me;

C: My strength was sapped as in the heat of summer.

P: Then I acknowledged my sin to you

C: And did not cover up my iniquity.

P: I said, "I will confess my transgressions to the LORD."

C: And you forgave the guilt of my sin.

To avoid disruptions...
Please silence your cell phones before worship begins.

P: Therefore let all the faithful pray to you while you may be found;
C: Surely the rising of the mighty waters will not reach them.

P: You are my hiding place;
C: You will protect me from trouble and surround me with songs of deliverance.

P: I will instruct you and teach you in the way you should go;
C: I will counsel you with my loving eye on you.

P: Do not be like the horse or the mule, which have no understanding;
C: They must be controlled by bit and bridle or they will not come to you.

P: Many are the woes of the wicked,
C: But the LORD's unfailing love surrounds the one who trusts in him.

P: Rejoice in the LORD and be glad, you righteous;
C: Sing, all you who are upright in heart!

RESPONSIVE PASSION HISTORY READING

Leader: Then they led him off to Pilate. To avoid ceremonial uncleanness the Jews did not enter the palace; they wanted to be able to eat the Passover.

Women: So Pilate came out to them and asked,

Leader: "What charges are you bringing against this man?"

Cong.: "If he were not a criminal, we would not have handed him over to you."

Leader: "Take him yourselves and judge him by your own law."

Cong.: "But we have no right to execute anyone."

Women: This happened so that the words Jesus had spoken indicating the kind of death he was going to die would be fulfilled.

Leader: They began to accuse him, saying,

Cong.: "We have found this man subverting our nation. He opposes payment of taxes to Caesar and claims to be Christ, a king."

Women: Pilate then went back inside the palace, summoned Jesus, and asked him,

Leader: “Are you the king of the Jews?”

Men: “Is that your idea, or did others talk to you about me?”

Leader: “Am I a Jew? It was your people and your chief priests who handed you over to me. What is it you have done?”

Men: “My kingdom is not of this world. If it were, my servants would fight to prevent my arrest by the Jews. But now my kingdom is from another place.”

Leader: “You are a king, then!”

Men: “You are right in saying I am a king. In fact, for this reason I was born, and for this I came into the world, to testify to the truth. Everyone on the side of truth listens to me.”

Leader: “What is truth?”

Women: Then Pilate took Jesus and had him flogged.

Leader: The soldiers led Jesus away into the palace (that is, the Praetorium) and called together the whole company of soldiers. They put a purple robe on him, then twisted together a crown of thorns and set it on him. And they began to call out to him,

Cong.: “Hail, King of the Jews!”

Leader: Again and again they struck him on the head with a staff and spit on him. Falling on their knees, they paid homage to him.

Women: Once more Pilate came out and said to the Jews,

Leader: “Look, I am bringing him out to you to let you know that I find no basis for a charge against him.”

Women: When Jesus came out wearing the crown of thorns and the purple robe, Pilate said to them,

Leader: “Here is the man.”

Women: As soon as the chief priests and their officials saw him, they shouted,

Men: “Crucify! Crucify!”

Women: But Pilate answered,

Leader: “You take him and crucify him. As for me, I find no basis for a charge against him.”

Men: “We have a law, and according to that law he must die, because he claimed to be the Son of God.”

Women: When Pilate heard this, he was even more afraid, and he went back inside the palace. He asked Jesus,

Leader: “Where do you come from?”

Women: But Jesus gave him no answer. Pilate asked,

Leader: “Do you refuse to speak to me? Don’t you realize I have power to free you or to crucify you?”

Men: “You would have no power over me if it were not given to you from above. Therefore the one who handed me over to you is guilty of a greater sin.”

Women: From then on, Pilate tried to set Jesus free. But they insisted,

Cong.: “He stirs up the people all over Judea by his teaching. He started in Galilee and has come all the way here.”

Leader: On hearing this, Pilate asked if the man was a Galilean. When he learned that Jesus was under Herod’s jurisdiction, he sent him to Herod, who was also in Jerusalem at that time. When Herod saw Jesus, he was greatly pleased, because for a long time he had been wanting to see him. From what he had heard about him, he hoped to see him perform some miracle. He plied him with many questions, but Jesus gave him no answer. The chief priests and teachers of the law were standing there, vehemently accusing him. Then Herod and his soldiers ridiculed and mocked him. Dressing him in an elegant robe, they sent him back to Pilate. That day Herod and Pilate became friends—before this they had been enemies.

Women: Pilate called together the chief priests, the rulers and the people, and said to them,

Leader: “You brought me this man as one who was inciting the people to rebellion. I have examined him in your presence and have found no basis for your charges against him. Neither has Herod, for he sent him back to us; as you can see, he has done nothing to deserve death. Therefore, I will punish him and release him.”

Women: Now it was the governor’s custom at the Feast to release a prisoner chosen by the crowd. At that time they had a notorious prisoner, called Barabbas. So when the crowd had gathered, Pilate asked them,

Leader: “Which one do you want me to release to you: Barabbas, or Jesus who is called Christ?”

Women: For he knew it was out of envy that they had handed Jesus over to him.

Men: While Pilate was sitting on the judge’s seat, his wife sent him this message:

Women: “Don’t have anything to do with that innocent man, for I have suffered a great deal today in a dream because of him.” 6

Leader: But the chief priests and the elders persuaded the crowd to ask for Barabbas and to have Jesus executed.

SERMON TEXT Luke 15: 1-3, 11b-32

Now the tax collectors and sinners were all gathering around to hear Jesus. But the Pharisees and the teachers of the law muttered, “This man welcomes sinners and eats with them.”

Then Jesus told them this parable:

“There was a man who had two sons. The younger one said to his father, ‘Father, give me my share of the estate.’ So he divided his property between them.

“Not long after that, the younger son got together all he had, set off for a distant country and there squandered his wealth in wild living. After he had spent everything, there was a severe famine in that whole country, and he began to be in need. So he went and hired himself out to a citizen of that country, who sent him to his fields to feed pigs. He longed to fill his stomach with the pods that the pigs were eating, but no one gave him anything.

“When he came to his senses, he said, ‘How many of my father’s hired servants have food to spare, and here I am starving to death! I will set out and go back to my father and say to him: Father, I have sinned against heaven and against you. I am no longer worthy to be called your son; make me like one of your hired servants.’ So he got up and went to his father.

“But while he was still a long way off, his father saw him and was filled with compassion for him; he ran to his son, threw his arms around him and kissed him.

“The son said to him, ‘Father, I have sinned against heaven and against you. I am no longer worthy to be called your son.’

“But the father said to his servants, ‘Quick! Bring the best robe and put it on him. Put a ring on his finger and sandals on his feet. Bring the fattened calf and kill it. Let’s have a feast and celebrate. For this son of mine was dead and is alive again; he was lost and is found.’ So they began to celebrate.

“Meanwhile, the older son was in the field. When he came near the house, he heard music and dancing. So he called one of the servants and asked him what was going on. ‘Your brother has come,’ he replied, ‘and your father has killed the fattened calf because he has him back safe and sound.’

“The older brother became angry and refused to go in. So his father went out and pleaded with him. But he answered his father, ‘Look! All these years I’ve been slaving for you and never disobeyed your orders. Yet you never gave me even a young goat so I could celebrate with my friends. But when this son of yours who has squandered your property with prostitutes comes home, you kill the fattened calf for him!’

“‘My son,’ the father said, ‘you are always with me, and everything I have is yours. But we had to celebrate and be glad, because this brother of yours was dead and is alive again; he was lost and is found.’”

Midweek Lenten Worship Services

Midweek Lenten Worship Services are held at the usual
Wednesday worship times of 12:00 & 6:30 pm on April 2 & 9.

This year's theme "Repent: Turn to Jesus!" flows from the critical questions in Martin Luther's 95 Theses and thereby the Lutheran Reformation: What is the essence of repentance? Is repentance the act of "doing penance"—making satisfaction for sin? Repentance, Luther came to see, is God's gracious gift to us. Luther proclaimed the biblical truth that the believer's entire life is a life of repentance—a daily return to the saving waters of Baptism. Why not commit yourselves to attend as many of the mid-week Lenten services as you can with your family? You will experience even greater joy in Christ's victory over death at Easter!

Midweek Lenten Meals

Lunch will be offered after the noon Lenten worship services at about 12:45 pm. Dinner will be offered before the evening services at 5:30 pm. We thank the many volunteers preparing and serving these meals! If you are able to help, please contact Lylette Smith (414-378-4107) for lunches, or Judy Tetting (262-523-1374) for dinners.

We want to do everything we can to facilitate family worship here at Christ. We also want to enable parents with young children to have the opportunity to listen to the sermon. That's where Christ Kids comes in.

- During the 10:30 am service everyone will worship together until the sermon hymn.
- At the sermon hymn children ages 3-6 years will be invited to meet their Christ Kids teacher in the back of church and will be safely escorted to the Christ Kids room for Christ-centered learning and activities designed just for them!
- Following the service parents will pick their children up from the Christ Kids classroom.

Note: Christ Kids is an optional service offered to families.

Christ Kids Teachers:

- 3/30 Stephanie Cera
